PLEASE GIVE TO PRISON MINISTRY

Consider the forgotten souls behind bars, yearning for redemption. In the spirit of biblical fellowship, extend a compassionate hand to those who've strayed. Not everyone is called to foreign missions, but, like missions, every believer should engage in prison ministry.

Let love triumph over judgment; join this sacred journey of restoration, making a difference in lives seeking a second chance.

You can partner with Secrets Unsealed and help reach prison inmates by donating to our worthy viewer fund. This fund allows us to send free resources to inmates.

BOOKS ON RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

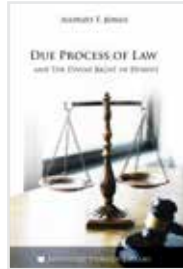

Christian Patriotism

A. T. Jones. "Christian patriotism, loyalty to the law and government of the Most High, is the loftiest aspiration that can ever come to any soul. The separation of religion and the State is one of the most important questions that any people can ever be called upon to consider in connection with Christian patriotism; because the union of religion and the State has marked the greatest apostasies from God, and has caused more misery than any other thing in all history."

(84 pages)

BKCP $9.99

Due Process of Law and the Divine Right of Dissent

A. T. Jones. The principle of separation of Church and State, as defined by the U. S. Constitution, has been a safeguard against religious tyranny. Because, whenever religion becomes in any way connected with the civil power, it is always the personal opinions as to religion, of those who happen at the time to be in power, that are given the force of law which all are expected to accept, and to which all are obliged by authority of Government to submit. Then, religious intolerance inevitably follows. (125 pages)

BKDPOL $11.99

The Captivity of the Republic

A. T. Jones. The republican government of the United States of America is constitutionally bound to keep a complete separation between Church and State. The fathers of the nation were positive in securing it, for they knew too well the evil results of the union of Church and State, which characterized the nations for centuries and millennia past. However, the principle of separation between Church and State has been attacked by the evangelical churches, and Congress did not stand up to defend the Constitution but rather yielded to them. (117 pages)

BKTCOTR $11.99

Civil Government and Religion

A. T. Jones. "The subject is always interesting and important, and as there is now a persistent demand being made for religious legislation, especially in relation to Sunday-keeping, this subject has become worthy of more careful study than it has ever received in this country since the adoption of the national Constitution."

BKCGAR $11.99

Religious Liberty Library

A. T. Jones, J. T. Ringgold, W. W. Prescott, and G. C. Tenney. Ever since the nation was established, the United States of America has been a defender of religious liberty and freedom of conscience. But, although liberty pervades the U.S. Constitution, there are many who do not understand the principles establishing freedom and the separation of Church and State. This lack of knowledge only gets worse as time goes by, and this is why it is so urgent to republish the Religious Liberty Library. All 24 publications in this series are republished in 2 volumes. Therefore, you have in your hands one of the finest collections ever published on religious liberty and freedom of conscience.

"When Protestantism shall stretch her hand across the gulf to grasp the hand of the Roman power, when ... our country shall repudiate every principle of its Constitution as a Protestant and republican government, and shall make provision for the propagation of papal falsehoods and delusions, then we may know that the time has come for the marvelous working of Satan and that the end is near."

BKHH5PCL$79.00 (5 Books)

101 Questions About Ellen White and Her Writings
William Fagal. This book provides thought-provoking answers to 101 of the most frequently asked and often most controversial inquiries about Ellen G. White. Quoting extensively from her writings, he exposes many of the myths that have developed and introduces readers to the real truth about this inspired author. (224 pages)

BK101Q$22.99

144,000 Sealed: When? Why?
Louis F. Were. This study of Revelation 7 presents a clear understanding of the identity of God's people, the time of their sealing, and their place in the fulfillment of prophetic events. (124 pages)

BK144S ...$7.95

A Drop of Grace
Dennis Page. Not growing up in a Christian home and influenced by the enemy of souls at a young age, my character was formed to represent that of Satan. Without a real knowledge of God, I lived for self. Materialism and pleasure were my main pursuits in life. As a drug user and dealer for more than 20 years, I came to the point of having no regard for human life. I lived to get and gain at the expense of others. When I could sink no lower in wickedness and sin, when loneliness and emptiness enveloped my soul, God stepped in, sending an angel to push back the forces of darkness, and shed light upon my darkened mind. (188 pages)

BKADOG.....$12.99

AD 508 Source Book
Heidi Heiks. The rise of the papacy in A.D. 508 fulfilled prophetic specifications of scriptures to the very letter. You will learn the real truth why the Catholic Church was so intensely against the Arian Christians. Discover the best kept secret of the Dark Ages that Rome thought she had buried forever! (222 pages)

BKHH508 $18.95

AD 538 Source Book
Heidi Heiks. A.D. 538 was a landmark year for the beginning of an important time prophecy that spans the Middle Ages. It is essential that those who follow the historicist method of interpreting prophecy firmly establish this point. Heiks has done precisely that with this study. (323 pages)

BKHH538$24.95

AD 1798 1843 Source Book
Heidi Heiks. Heiks has detailed the course of the monumental prophetic events surrounding the captivity of Pope Pius VI in 1798 and the setting up of the Roman Republic through the eyes of those who participated in those events at the time. (188 pages)

BKHH17981843 ... $16.95

Addicted to Purity
Scott Ritsema. We live in a pornographic world. Sexual alluring images and immoral love stories assault the eyes and seize the hearts. Presently, 70% of men in the church admit to struggling with pornography. Many teens have no moral compass on dating and marriage. Is there any hope for young and old who feel like slaves to their desires? The answer is a definitive YES! The latest scientific research and time-tested biblical principles are inspiring countless souls with a hopeful vision of just how freeing it is to be 'enslaved' to purity in a pornographic world. (32 pages)

BKATP$5.99

Answers To Objections Source Book
Heidi Heiks. This is dedicated to the prophetic periods of Daniel and Revelation. It addresses 20 objections and other issues. All objections are for the years and events connected to AD 508 and AD 538. Readers will find that Heiks clarifies documentation and resolves all the best arguments brought against correct interpretation. The author also includes the Source Books' bibliographies, which are a great resource for any scholar, historian, or layperson doing research. (225 pages)

Before Probation Closes
Louis F. Were. Written in the early 1950s, the author carefully considered the political climate of his time in writing on the topic of the close of probation. Who were the main players, and how did they oppose God's kingdom? The reader of Before Probation

Closes will be fascinated to review some of the world's history of some 70 years ago, and in the light of this history consider the conditions of the world today. How have the players changed and yet the agenda remains the same, as does Satan's agenda to destroy God's people by whatever means possible? In the end what matters is that Jesus is coming again, and He is looking for individuals who are clothed in His righteousness, and who are able to stand with joy in His presence.(118 pages)

Creeping Compromise
Joe Crews. This book is about the spiritual dangers we face in our times. It is addressed to those who want to perfect their walk with God, rather than introducing readers to Jesus Christ. The many ethical topics discussed will be a blessing for those disappointed with what's happening among those who claim to follow Jesus. (127 pages)

BKCC.....$11.95

Daniel and the Revelation: The Response of History to the Voice of Prophecy Uriah Smith. This book is a deep, verse-by-verse explanation of the two main prophetic books of the Bible. It reflects the classical Protestant interpretation of prophecy presented by Wycliff, Huss, Luther, Zwingli, Calvin, and many others. You will be profoundly moved as you understand the way God has foretold the future, and the astonishing fulfillment of the very details prophesied. (610 pages)

Don't Torture Scripture
Andrew F. Manthe. This book examines 17 key verses or passages that many Christians, both leaders and laity, commonly misinterpret because they divorce the selected text from its immediate context. But a text without context is a pretext (falsehood or error). Manthe presents the correct meaning of these often misunderstood passages by examining the content and theme(s) present in the surrounding verses, with an eye to the larger testimony of the whole of Scripture regarding the topics. (111 pages)

BKDS.....$11.99

Ecclesiastical Empire: From the Fall of Rome to the United States

A.T. Jones. This book depicts the reign of the Roman system throughout the Middle Ages. Details are given which reveal a history that accurately and precisely fulfills Bible prophecy. In this volume, Jones depicts the steps by which Romanism attained to power, and by which it actually controlled the World for more than a thousand years. He vividly describes those who were the special object of persecution: the Waldenses, the Albigenses, and many more. More than ever you will see why the Bible calls that system an expression of the “mystery of iniquity.” (636 pages)

Face to Face with the Real Gospel - Revised Edition

Dennis E. Priebe. Face it! The real gospel is under attack! If the good news of Christ is what saves us, shouldn't Christians expect the devil to craft a deceptive counterfeit for it? Writing to the Galatians, the apostle Paul spoke of this as “another” gospel. In this seminal book, author Dennis Priebe lifts the fog to separate the true gospel from the fake, answering such questions as: Is it really possible to overcome sin? If so, to what extent? And can the gospel help us be holy? In a sea of false and dangerous gospels, Priebe champions the true gospel to give you overwhelming and eternal hope in the power of Christ. (93 pages)

Fathers of the Catholic Church

E.J. Waggoner. The author was greatly impacted by a revelation of Christ as a sin-pardoning Redeemer. This view of Christ guided his study of the Bible during his whole life. He was also a diligent student of history and prophecy, being deeply involved in promoting religious liberty as a co-editor of the American Sentinel. (251 pages)

History of the Sabbath
J. N. Andrews. This is one of the most able defenses of the seventh-day Sabbath established by God Himself as the rest-day at creation week. However, God's memorial has been attacked by Romanists as well as protestants. Providentially enough, history has clearly recorded the subtle yet tireless moves of men who endeavored to establish Sunday as the sacred day, putting down God's seventh-day Sabbath. In this book, you will find convincing evidence to settle this long-drawn controversy between Sabbath and Sunday. (478 pages)

Judging the Sabbath

Ron du Preez. Sabbatarians have argued for centuries that the "sabbath" of Colossians 2:16 refers to the Jewish ceremonial sabbaths, and not the Decalogue Sabbath. Traditional Christian interpretation of that passage has generally bypassed the context and relied on other arguments, often unexamined by careful exegesis. Du Preez examines those other arguments and challenges arguments that rely on Colossians 2:16 in order to deny the continuing moral imperative of the seventh-day Sabbath. (208 pages)

King of the North — An Exposition of Daniel 11:40-12:1

Heidi Heiks. There are two schools of thought on the interpretation of Daniel 11. In the first, the kings of the north and south are seen as literal, geo-political entities in the present-day Middle East.

Adventist interpreters favored this view until the end of World War I. After this, a second view developed called the spiritual or symbolic interpretation. Heiks gives a detailed application of this prophecy within this symbolic approach. (115 pages)

Meet It: Iceberg of Deception - A Look Beneath the Surface
Rick Howard. Why so much concern and controversy over a movement that claims to promote a deeper experience with God? Meet It reveals the spiritualistic dangers hidden below the surface of emerging church theology and practice. Howard shows how Satan is using this movement to introduce the errors of Eastern mysticism, Roman Catholic spirituality and ecumenical tendencies into God's remnant church. (158 pages)

Pastor James White & Unfulfilled Prophecy

Louis F. Were. How many today eagerly watch the Middle East for the fulfillment of end-time prophecies regarding Israel? In losing sight of the spiritual nature of Israel, one may easily be led into expecting Bible prophecy to be fulfilled by political kingdoms.

By taking out of context the words of our pioneers, we may be blinded to prophetic fulfillment already taking place all around us, setting ourselves up for bitter disappointment, or for being caught unaware. Guesswork need not be employed in rightly interpreting prophecy — just clear understanding derived from applying correct principles of interpretation concerning both the present and the future. Prophet for the Final Generation

P. Gerard Damsteegt. With the precision of a renowned historian and the rigor of an academic with more than 40 years of experience, Pastor Gerard Damsteegt discusses the serious hermeneutical problems that Adventism faces today, the power contained in a healthy diet and the habits of a healthy lifestyle in its close connection with the principle of divine holiness, or how a correct understanding of the inspiration of the Bible prevents us from false theories and harmful teachings.

The last chapter of the book stands out, with a lucid reflection on the connection of the church's theologians with the three angels' messages, where the author warns of the crucial role of the gift of prophecy for a correct interpretation of the solemn messages and their application to the fulfillment of the church's mission.

The book you have in your hands is a valuable text that can provide a renewed appreciation for the Testimonies of the Spirit of Prophecy, for its special theological authority for the end of times, and, in short, for a solid and clear interpretation of the truths of salvation that God desires for His church. Prophetic Principles: Crucial Exegetical, Theological, Historical & Practical Insights

Editor: Ron du Preez. The terrorist attacks in the USA on September 11, 2001, triggered an intense interest among many regarding the end of the world. Visions of a literal

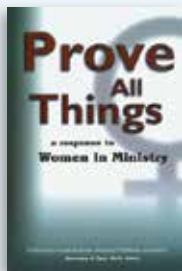

Armageddon, fomented by the famous fictional Left Behind series, engendered a renewed emphasis on Biblical prophecies, especially last-day events as portrayed in the Apocalypse.

Novel perspectives were proposed. Some wondered whether Islam should be included as part of the end-time persecuting power pictured in Revelation. Others began to foster a futurist interpretation of Daniel's 1290 and 1335 day predictions. Questions crept in concerning Revelation's trumpets, and the meaning of that enigmatic number 666.

It was this frenetic focus on final future events that highlighted the need for a Scripture Symposium on eschatology. While obviously not exhaustive in its scope, the compendium of scholarly essays in this volume of Prophetic Principles will provide the serious student with sound scriptural tools, as well as sufficient historical information, so as to correctly comprehend the Christ-centered context of these culminating cosmic controversies.

Sleuthing the Close of Probation

Allen Barnes. A very common question is being raised by many Seventh-day Adventists today:

"Does probation close earlier for Seventh-day Adventists than the rest of the world?"

Just as two verses of Scripture are often misconstrued by Sunday advocates (Acts 20:7 and 1 Corinthians 16:2), allowing a surface reading to lead to wrong conclusions, there are a couple of passages that have also been misunderstood by many Seventh-day Adventists. Those passages are 1 Peter 4:17 and Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 9, p. 97. The resulting confusion has led to the dangerous assumption that probation closes for Seventh-day Adventists at the signing of the national Sunday law, before it closes on the rest of the world.

This book is the product of years of sleuthing (investigating) the subject from multiple angles. This is a "must read" for those confused on the issue, shedding a flood of light on probation's close. (75 pages)

Studies in Christian Education

E.A. Sutherland. Why didn't the Protestant Reformation keep advancing? What kind of counter measures could be so efficient to stop such a momentous movement? What happened to those initial efforts? The answers are alarming! Though Luther and Melancthon had been extremely devoted to the religious reform, subsequent leaders failed to train their youth to keep advancing the cause. The educational system did not receive the attention it required, and the results were disastrous. This book reviews one of the major reasons for the moral decline and fall of the Protestant denominations in 1844. As Seventh-day Adventists, we cannot afford to repeat those mistakes. except for his masterpiece, The Three Angels' Messages of Revelation 14:6-12, in this little book, the author offers us a masterly synthesis of the work of our Lord Jesus Christ as High Priest in the sanctuary 'not made with hands' (Heb. 8:1-6). At this solemn time, when the door of the sanctuary still remains open to give us grace and salvation, our attention is now required to be fixed on the teaching of the judgment and the order of its events, as expressed by its author. The Sanctuary and 2300 Days J.N. Andrews. "In the future, deception of every kind is to arise, and we want solid ground for our feet. We want solid pillars for the building. Not one pin is to be removed from that which the Lord has established. The enemy will bring in false theories, such as the doctrine that there is no sanctuary. This is one of the points on which there will be a departing from the faith. Where shall we find safety unless it be in the truths that the Lord has been giving for the last fifty years?" Ellen G. White, The Review and Herald, May 25, 1905. "I know that the sanctuary question stands in righteousness and truth, just as we have held it for so many years". Ellen G. White, Gospel Workers, p. 303. (70 pages)

The Time of the End: A Study for the Last Days
James L. Hayward, Sr. This compilation consists of 4,000 Spirit of Prophecy quotations and Bible references covering the emergence of God's last-day remnant church, its message, its mission to the world, its internal and external challenges, and its final glorious victory—a period of time beginning with the year 1798 and ending with the new earth. Material has been gathered from almost 100 of Ellen White's books, magazine articles, and letters, and other writings with the most concise, yet clear, statements possible that deal with each subject presented. The compiler's notes have been kept to a minimum, letting the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy speak. (Hard cover. 623 pages)

The Tip of an Iceberg
C. Raymond Holmes. D. Min. What happens to a church when it decides to leave the pressures of society and the voice of culture on the issue of women's ordination rather than the authority of the Scriptures? Holmes was once a clergyman in the Lutheran Church and made the difficult choice of leaving the Lutheran Church to become a Seventh-day Adventist pastor. Holmes tells the story of how his former church faced the issue of women's ordination and the lessons that Seventh-day Adventists can learn from its experience. This book provides a persuasive rationale for following the mandate of Scripture to ordain only men who are 'husbands of one wife.' (208 pages)

The Truth Concerning... Mrs. E.G. White, Uriah Smith and the King of the North

Louis F. Were. There has long been a controversy about issues surrounding Daniel's prophecy of the King of the North (Dan. 11:45). Were clears the fog in this prophecy by revealing what Mrs. White and other pioneers believed about it, how the controversy with Uriah Smith over its interpretation was handled, and why it was handled in the manner it was. The purpose of this booklet is not a criticism of any person, but a vindication of truth. And the matter still comes down to where our heart lies. Are we confident in our own abilities to interpret the Scriptures, or are we humbly and prayerfully led by the Spirit, with a teachable and surrendered heart? (31 pages)

The Torch of False Prophecy in Our Pulpits

Louis F. Were. "Many will stand in our pulpits with the torch of false prophecy in their hands, kindled from the hellish torch of Satan" (TM, pp 409, 410). Loyal Adventists would not knowingly accept false teaching, but when such is presented before them wrapped in sentiment by one of our accredited ministers, they unsuspectingly and trustingly accept it. "No man should be relied upon to think for us. . . . Each one of us must look to God for Divine enlightenment" (TM, pp. 109, 110). (20 pages)

The Word Was Made Flesh - Legacy Edition

Ralph Larson. At present there is a conflict in the Seventh-day Adventist Church regarding which nature Jesus took when He came to this earth. Some think he took the nature of Adam before the Fall and

Thou Shalt Not Worship Other Gods

Larry L. Lichtenwalter, PhD, Douglas de Souza Reis, PhD, Carlos Steger, PhD, Daniel O. Plenc, PhD.

Written by leading Seventh-day Adventist theologians, most of them published in theological journals, these studies analyze the possible influences of the phenomenon on Adventism, the so-called omega apostasy, and the critical role of music as a current propellant of the emergent phenomenon, the importance of the principle of the holiness of God for true biblical worship and, finally, the prominence of the theme of worship in the book of Revelation and its profound ethical and theological implications. The book Thou Shalt Not Worship Other Gods comes at an opportune time to fill a vital need of the church in its worship of God, and to provide solid biblical and theological arguments to help us better prepare for the subtle deceptions of the end times. Touched With Our Feelings

J. R. Zurcher. In early Adventism, many of the leaders believed Christ had a beginning in time. But by the 1890s the church was moving toward a more orthodox position. Another belief long held by church leaders is that Christ was born with a fallen nature. This view also began to change in the 1950s toward the position that Christ was born with physical degeneracy but not the propensities to sin that all other human beings are born with. Zurcher gives evidence from Scripture and Adventist history to support a return to the traditional view that Jesus took the nature of Adam after the Fall. (308 pages)

Tremble

Dave Fiedler. When “post modernism” seems to be the dominant world view, when interest in traditional religion is falling off, when far too many Adventist youth are simply walking away, what could possibly be wrong with getting people excited about “spirituality”? In 1903,

Ellen White wrote an urgent letter about the “Alpha of Apostasy” and rushed it to the mail. Twenty-five hundred miles later, it arrived just in time to head off disaster—temporarily at least. (191 pages)

Ismael Rodriguez. The Word of God clearly states that, “the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ” (Revelation 12:17). Simply put, the enemy of souls is angry with the last-day remnant church of Christ, the Seventh-day Adventist Church. And, one way that he has harassed the remnant church is by the emergence of various dissident movements throughout its history; the “Shepherd’s Rod” Davidian movement is one such deceptive movement that has plagued the church since the early 1930s. In this series Pastor Bohr will trace a clear timeline of end-time ‘Elijah’ events with special emphasis on:

- the loud cry
- the latter rain
- the role of the climate change movement in Sunday legislation
- the little time of trouble
- the great tribulation and Satan’s counterfeit personation of Christ’s coming.

There has been much discussion in recent days about the timing and reason for Satan’s counterfeit. Pastor Bohr will present overwhelming evidence for a post-probationary fulfillment of this event. Also, your life will never be the same after studying powerful insights with Dr. Walsh, Vicki Griffin, and Pastor Jay Gallimore. Great Apostasies of the Bible

Stephen Bohr. The Bible warns us that the things which happened to Israel were types and examples for us today who are on the brink of eternity. You will see striking parallels between Israel's pitfalls and modern problems in the church that delay us from entering heaven. The same apostasy in these stories can be seen in the modern worship styles and rebellious attitudes and practices of individuals and whole churches today. There will be a shaking and a weeding out of those whose hearts are more inclined to the world than they are to God. This inspiring series will teach you how to detect the signs of apostasy and how to stand firm when the whole world seems to be forsaking God's truth.

His Way Is In the Sanctuary

Stephen Bohr. "The correct understanding of the ministration in the heavenly sanctuary is the foundation of our faith" Ev, p. 221. Why is this so? What makes the doctrine of the sanctuary so important? In this series, Pastor Bohr explains how the many doctrines of the Bible, such as the divine/human nature of Christ, the salvation of sinful man, the Sabbath, the Ten Commandments, the state of the dead, the judgment, tithing, healthful living, the work of angels, and even end-time events are all explained in the sanctuary service. With simplicity and clarity he shows how the sanctuary is the great magnet which draws together all the doctrines of the Bible into a unified system of truth.

How To Find Mr. & Mrs. Right

Dr. Dojcin Zivadinovic. In the world of broken marriages, confused dating techniques, lustful relationships, painful break-ups, and mental health issues related to grief and rejection, how do we as Christians approach the topic of courtship and dating?

This seminar reveals seven loving and biblical steps to a godly marriage. These seven steps are preparation, noticing, observation, consultation, invitation, courtship, and engagement. These steps are the exact opposite of how the world does it. Join Dr. Zivadinovic in this fascinating eye-opening journey of how to find the real biblical soul-mate.

Last Generation Theology Symposium: Anti-Gospel Heresy or Bible Truth?

What is Last Generation Theology? Very likely you've heard this phrase in the church during the past few years. Is it an anti-gospel, legalistic heresy, as some have alleged? Or is it the Bible-based rationale for the existence, message, and mission of the Seventh-day Adventist movement? The purpose of this symposium is to take these questions to the Bible and the writings of the Spirit of Prophecy, and to thus discover God's answers.

Scripture, Church Structure, and the Path to Unity Symposium

Stephen Bohr, Daniel Scarone, Kevin Paulson, Mike Lambert, Larry Kirkpatrick, Mario Veloso,

At the San Antonio General Conference Session in 2015, the world church voted for the third time to disallow the practice. Since San Antonio, ecclesiastical and administrative issues have arisen that must be addressed. This symposium deals with very relevant questions: How does church policy relate to the worldwide unity of the church? Is compliance with denominational church policy merely optional? Sola

Stephen Bohr, Gerard & Laurel Damsteegt, Kameron DeVasher, Larry Kirkpatrick, Mel Mulder, Dennis Priebe, Edwin Reynolds, Milton Teske.

October 31, 2017 marked the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. At the Secrets Unsealed Annual Summit, we invited a slate of nine speakers to unpack the meaning of the Protestant Reformation and its relevance for today. Under the theme 'SOLA', the speakers expanded upon themes such as hermeneutics, the relevance of the Spirit of Prophecy, the true meaning of righteousness by faith, and Bible prophecy. In a time when Protestantism is gravitating ever so swiftly back to the Roman Catholic Church, this series is most relevant and timely.

Revelation's Seven Trumpets - A Contextual Approach

Stephen Bohr. There are many differing interpretations of the seven trumpets both within and without the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The trumpet series is one of the most difficult to interpret in the book of Revelation. Bizarre symbols and strange actions permeate the series. How can we make sense out of what appears to be impossible to decode? In this series, Pastor Bohr suggests a contextual approach that centers on the great controversy between good and evil. Using the principle that Scripture is its own interpreter, Pastor Bohr offers an interpretation that makes sense and appeals to the unimpassioned reason.

The 2 Mysteries Collide

Akeem James. Christ is the mystery of godliness incarnate and is revealed in God's Church (Col. 1:26-27). In opposition, the mystery of iniquity also produces a church called "the man of sin." The man of sin ultimately paves the way for the mystery of iniquity incarnate, Satan personating Christ's second coming. Each mystery produces a church, and both of these churches collide in the end, but God's people will prevail.

The Battle for Liberty of Conscience

Alan Reinach. The Constitution of the United States guarantees liberty of conscience. Nothing is dearer or more fundamental. Pope Pius IX, in his Encyclical Letter of August 15, 1854, said:

'The absurd and erroneous doctrines or ravings in defense of liberty of conscience are a most pestilential error--a pest, of all others, most to be dreaded in a state.' The same pope, in his Encyclical Letter of December 8, 1864, anathematized 'those who assert the liberty of conscience and of religious worship,' also 'all such as maintain that the church may not employ force.' {GC 564.5}

The Great Cosmic Controversy

Stephen Bohr. If you want to know how evil began, why it continues and how it will end, this is the series for you.

Seventh-day Adventists often refer to the "doctrine" of the sanctuary. But the sanctuary is much more than a mere doctrine of the church. It is actually the World View that unites all the Bible doctrines into a beautiful mosaic of truth. In this series Pastor Bohr links the sanctuary with the overarching concept of the great conflict between good and evil and shows how Jesus, step-by-step, resolves the universal problem of evil.

Stephen Bohr. In this class we will study in detail some of the minor prophets that are closely linked with the book of Revelation. Among those are Habakkuk, Nahum, Joel and Jonah. We will also study portions of the major prophets that are developed in the book of Revelation such as Jeremiah 4, Isaiah 24-27, 36-38 and Ezekiel 38, 39, among others. But this is not all, we will also compare God's perspective of prophecy and ours as well as prophecies that are rarely considered, such as the typological meaning of the cities of refuge, the glory on the face of Moses as he descended from the mount, and the typological parallels between the building of the Jerusalem wall by Nehemiah and our parallel work today.

The Hebrew Religious Calendar

Stephen Bohr. Before Jesus came to this earth, He sat down with His Father and planned the seven successive steps that

He would take in the plan of salvation. However, not only did they plan the steps but they also prepared a detailed calendar when those steps would take place. The Hebrew Sanctuary reveals the events of salvation history and the Feasts reveal the calendar of those events. This study focuses on the seven Feasts and their relationship to the sanctuary. Included is a study of the season of the Messiah's birth, the three days and three nights and whether Christians are still required to observe the Feasts. Dr. Milton Teske, C.A. Murray, Stephen Bohr. What are the Biblical sources for the 144,000? What passages of scripture do we need to study in order to understand the meaning of the 144,000? Who are they? At what state in history will they live? In what context do they appear in the book of Revelation? Why do they appear in that particular spot in the Book of Revelation? Is the number literal or symbolic? What is meant by the fact that they are called virgins? And much more!

Stephen Bohr, G. Edward Reid, and Ron du Preez. This series opens up prophecies given in the book of Revelation in a way that leaves one marveling at how very close we are to the end of time. You will see how the Seventh-day Adventist message is the powerful antidote given by God to correct the evolutionary and ecumenical belief systems sweeping into modern Christianity and the whole world. The meaning of the Sabbath and the Second Advent of Christ springs to life in these presentations, while also learning solid principles for proper Bible interpretation that will keep you from falling into error. You will be confirmed in your faith that God gave us the distinctive name "Seventh-day Adventist" to lift high as His banner in a world needing the rest, trust, and belief in His supernatural power that this blessed hope offers.

Undoctrinated

Scott Ritsema. Over 100 years ago, the nefarious purposes behind modern schooling methods were openly proclaimed by the founders of public education in America. The goals were simple: indoctrination and social engineering. Satan's plan to ruin the minds of children was underway. But today, these worldly schooling methods, once universally practiced, are now widely being recognized as obsolete and even harmful to children. The collapse of the modern school is now underway, as home education is rising and a remnant of schools is bravely and radically re-defining education. How can we un-do the indoctrination that has taken place? What is God's answer to modern, worldly schooling?

What Jesus Said to New Testament Christians

Stephen Bohr. It has been claimed that Seventh-day Adventists are Old Testament Christians because they tithe, keep the Sabbath, and abide by certain health principles. What about their other distinctive doctrines such as the Spirit of Prophecy, the state of the dead, the sanctuary and the investigative judgment. Can they be found in the four gospels and the book of Acts? Yes they can!

Building upon the foundation of the four gospels and the book of Acts, Pastor Stephen Bohr will answer these questions and establish in this Anchor class that Jesus taught every belief and practice of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This will equip you to give a reason for the faith that is in you when you meet other Christians who claim to be "New Testament Christians".

Who's Rockin' The House?: Music of the World in the World of the Church

Dr. Ricky Little. Music is a powerful influence. Satan, who was the heavenly choir director before his fall, is attempting to confuse the minds of believers by bringing secular music into the church. As a result, many are mixing the holy with the profane. According to God's word, the compromise taking place in our churches misrepresents God, and misleads His people.

Don't be deceived by the counterfeit, fanatical music-driven worship experience which Satan will orchestrate just before the close of probation and the second coming of Christ. This six-part series will provide Biblical principles to guide your personal life, and help you to determine what is acceptable before God's throne in our corporate worship. This series also includes Dr. Little's personal testimony.

Reversing Autoimmune

Gabriel & Jennifer Arruda. At just 29 years old, Gabriel started seeing signs of the same autoimmune disease that killed his mother and grandmother, autoimmune liver cirrhosis. He suffered through chronic fatigue, migraine headaches, food allergies, problems sleeping, and a terrible skin fungus that covered a third of his body. However, what began as a death sentence turned into a wonderful blessing of health and discovery. With the blessing of God, through much prayer, years of research, and trial and error, Gabriel and his wife successfully reversed his autoimmune disease.

Death and Salvation

Daniel Miranda. Many people have been perplexed by the Bible's teaching that salvation is the result of death. In their minds, this is an oxymoron. Why did the Son of God have to shed His blood to save us? The fact is that since sin is a terrible thing that leads to death (Rom 6:23), only by the shedding of the blood of the Son of God could sin be atoned and shown how painful it is for God. In this booklet, we will learn the role that blood plays in the plan of salvation, and how the different sacrifices in the Old Testament teach us about how God takes care of the problem of sin in the universe. Shadow Play - the invisible warfare

Stephen Bohr

This book covers the entrance of sin into the world and how mankind lost their God-given robe of light and righteousness and became spiritually naked. But, as soon as man sinned, the plan of salvation that had been conceived since "the foundation of the world" was put into effect. God had Adam see for himself what sin costs by killing innocent lambs to make skins to cover their nakedness instead of the fig leaf garments they had made for themselves, thus showing that we have no power to clothe our nakedness of sin and only the death of Christ, the Lamb, can do so. Pastor Bohr also discusses how sin is the cause of all the psychological and marital problems in the world today, because Adam and Eve experienced fear, shame, and guilt and were shifting the blame for their sin. The Truth About The Number 666

The number 666 has piqued the curiosity of thousands throughout the years. What is the meaning behind this cryptic code? There are many opinions but only one biblical answer.

In his typically thorough style, Pastor Bohr examines the viability of Vicarius Filii Dei, a title meaning "vicar of the Son of God," being the "number of a man" in Revelation 13:18. He considers the characteristics applied to the man who bears the number and compares it to papal activities, habits, and admissions through the centuries. Stephen Bohr. In recent times the authenticity of the baptismal formula of Matthew 28:19 has been called into question. It is claimed that the words "in the name of

Divine Ordinances

Stephen Bohr. Marriage and the Sabbath were the two divine ordinances set up by God for our human race's good. When these things are desecrated the earth falls under its curse. The little horn power in Daniel tried to change God's ordinances. Today many in the secular world push against God's ideal of marriage and most churches push against God's holy Sabbath. God will hold the world accountable for His broken laws, so how does it make sense then, as many Christians say, that the Law (especially the Sabbath) has been done away with by the cross, yet at the same time they condemn the secular world for its liberalness in marriage standards? The Bible says that Christians in the end, like the Pharisees, will "have a form of godliness, but deny its power" (2 Tim. 3:1-5).

The remnant will be identified by being those who keep the commandments of God and have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb and have metamorphosed into a character like Christ's by beholding His glory.

Exodus, Grace and the Law

Stephen Bohr. The experience of Israel's journey from Egypt to Canaan is said in 1st Corinthians 10 to be an example to us living in the last days. So Pastor Bohr, in this sermon, highlights some of their experiences that illustrate our own journey to heaven. Just like us, mired in our sinful nature with no way out of bondage, they were in slavery and disobedience and did not deserve, of their own merit, any grace of deliverance. The "great river dragon/serpent", Pharaoh, a type of Satan, held them in bondage and would not let them go without a struggle. Just like Herod (who also is represented by a dragon/serpent in Revelation 12) did, when he hoped to kill the promised Messiah, Jesus, by slaughtering the male children of Bethlehem many years later, Pharaoh tried to rid Israel of their promised deliverer, Moses.

SINGLE PRESENTATIONS DVD

God delivered Israel from slavery first and then led them to Sinai to teach them His law. In like manner, God does not require us to keep the Ten Commandments until we have been rescued from slavery to sin and given power to overcome by the Holy Spirit. Israel's forced labor in Egypt on the Sabbath, the Passover, the Red Sea experience, the manna, and the striking of the rock episode, all have spiritual applications we can benefit from today.

Fourth Commandment

Stephen Bohr. There are three biblical things the Sabbath memorializes and/or points forward to: 1) Creation 2) Redemption 3) Restoration in the New Earth.

Do you ever wonder why many Christians focus on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and Resurrection Sunday, but are strangely silent about what happened on Sabbath in the Passion Week? Especially focusing on the redemption commemorated by Christ's resting in the tomb on Sabbath, Pastor Bohr shares how this experience was prophesied by the manna that was miraculously preserved over the Sabbath in the Hebrew wilderness wanderings. From this, as well as from meanings gleaned in the Table of Shew-bread, the Passover Feast of Unleavened Bread, and the two different renditions of the Sabbath Commandment found in Exodus and Deuteronomy, he shares insights that should put to rest all arguments that the Sabbath is no longer necessary. We see clearly why we are called to be not just New Testament, but Whole Bible Christians, because Jesus is at the center of the entire Bible. "The entire system of Judaism was a compacted prophecy of the gospel" (DA 211).

From Riches to Rags

Stephen Bohr. In this sermon, Pastor Bohr discusses Jesus' standout characteristic trait of humble condescension as opposed to Satan's attitude of self and sin.

You will learn why the Bible calls Him "Michael the Archangel" and "The Angel of the Lord". You will see His role in Old Testament times in preparing the world for His coming and how He came as a humble Baby born in a cattle's feeding trough. He had no worldly honor or trappings that accompany earthly monarchs, but faced mockery and scorn, when evil men beat and disfigured Him during His passion in paying our penalty for sin.

Jesus calls us to take His yoke upon ourselves and follow His meek and lowly lifestyle instead of selfishly living in indulgence, vanity, and ostentation. Instead of demanding our rights and seeking position and power in relating to the world and to fellow church members, we are to "let this mind be in you that was also in Christ Jesus" and learn the joy found in condescending in loving service to God and humanity as He did.

Worship as expressed in prayer, praise, dress, giving and music must be God-focused and not worshiper or felt-needs focused. How To Stay Happily Married

Stephen Bohr. The devil is out in full fury today to attack the seventh-day Sabbath and marriage, the two institutions God gave in Eden that protect our Sin is the root cause of all marriage problems, as shown right from the beginning in Adam blaming Eve for his fall right after they had sinned. Marriage counselors are fine in their place, but no amount of human psychology will be truly successful if it takes the place of two hearts in marriage striving to be right in their relationship with God and in implementing two very important biblical principles toward each other, which are explained in this presentation.

Identity Crisis

Stephen Bohr. The Adventist church today is going through an identity crisis as some leaders and churches, concerned over public relations, have influenced some of their members to lessen our standards and doctrines and to shift into dwelling more on preaching "seeker-friendly" sermons, reaching felt needs, "accepting you as you are", seeking numbers, popularity and acceptance by other churches, than on encouraging change in our lifestyle habits, preaching the full gospel of the three angels' messages and warning the world of what is coming ahead.

Jesus and Present Truth

Pastor Bohr answers these questions by explaining that there is a special message of “present truth”, appropriate for the time in which it is to be given, which

His people are called to proclaim to the world at each time that Jesus has added an additional function to His ministry in the plan of salvation, as is illustrated by the four compartments of the Hebrew sanctuary service which foreshadowed His ministry of salvation. Of all denominations, only Seventh-day Adventists are preaching, not only the message of His substitutionary perfect life on earth where He came to live among us, as illustrated by the camp surrounding the sanctuary; not only His substitutionary death on the cross, as illustrated by the courtyard; not only His work of applying the benefits of His atonement to those who accept Him as Lord and Savior, as illustrated by the Holy Place where He ascended to after His sojourn on earth; but we have been called out in these last days to proclaim the full gospel message of “present truth” for this time. This message is found in the Three Angels’ Message of Revelation 14:6-13, which reveals that we are in the period of the investigative judgment and Day of Atonement work of Jesus, which is now going on in heaven in the Most Holy Place. We Christians are still called to preach the vital truths illustrated by the other compartments of the sanctuary as well.

Messiah’s Genealogies

Pastor Stephen Bohr describes how the only way that mankind could be restored to their original kingship and dominion of earth, that Adam lost to Satan at his fall, was for Jesus to take Adam’s place as Head of our race by adopting human nature in combination with His divine nature.

Just as Adam was called “the son of God” at his creation (Luke 3:38), so Jesus, in replacing Adam’s failure, became the Second Adam and the true Son of God, Who would restore an enslaved humanity to peace with God and freedom from sin and bondage. Only someone from outside of our human family, which is entirely helpless because we are all steeped in sin, could come down, take our family name and save us. The Bible calls Jesus both the Father and the Son of Adam, Abraham and David. He is both our Father, as our Creator, and our son, by His being born in human nature and flesh.

Pastor Bohr discusses some of the Hebrew laws of kinship redemption that illustrate how mankind would be restored by our Elder Brother to our original position we had at Creation. Jesus could only redeem us by taking on human nature, because Satan would have accused Him of acting out a detached formal role-play if He had come only in His God nature and had attempted to save humanity without sharing the experience of their sinful condition. So He inherited our genealogy that was passed on from each generation before Him and became our Blood Brother, so we could be adopted in His Name and be called sons and daughters of God once more. The incarnation shows the universe that He is not ashamed to call us His brethren (Heb. 2:11). God’s Christmas Gift to us is Emmanuel, God With Us, providing us the only Way to come back to Him and become part of His family.

Naked and Ashamed

In this sermon, Pastor Bohr discusses the three stages of the judgment as found in Revelation. There is a pre-Advent judgment of the righteous, which is going on in heaven right now; a judgment which will be done by the righteous in heaven during the Millennium to answer questions why the wicked were lost and then to determine their punishment; and a final stage after the Millennium of revealing to the resurrected wicked why they were lost. In most Christian’s minds the judgment is a one time event at the coming of Christ, but this message will show it is a lengthy process that is designed to show all the universe that God is just and fair in how He judges. It also explains the seeming contradiction of why the Bible says that we are judged by our works and our commandment keeping, yet it also says that we are saved by faith alone.

Not Conformed But Transformed

Stephen Bohr. “The adversary of souls directs his temptations to the enfeebling and degrading of the physical powers. His success here often means the surrender of the whole being to evil” (2MCP 406). The mind is “the only medium through which heaven can communicate with man” (MLT 148). Is taking care of our bodies and minds a form of true worship? Not only are worship styles being changed in many churches, but new attitudes towards diet, alcohol, caffeine, sexual standards, and worldly entertainments are tending to the debasing of our reason and are polluting our offerings of living, sacrificial worship to God. We are too often being conformed to the world instead of being transformed by the renewing of our minds.

In this life-changing message, based on Romans 12:1-2, Pastor Bohr shares the steps needed to overcome body and mind-destroying habits and to become totally changed. We are to metamorphize into a new creature in Christ like a caterpillar turns into a butterfly.

Satan leads God's people into dead formalism and ritual, yet with outwardly apparent delight and lip service they seek God's will and blessings as if they were a righteous people. "These people honor Me with their lips but their hearts are far from Me" (Mark 7:6). As in Isaiah's day and as in Christ's day, we are in danger of making the Sabbath experience a merely outward observance, trying to "earn brownie points" rather than calling the Sabbath delightful and a day to do good and bless others. God hates formalistic ritual worship and He desires mercy over mere sacrifices, offerings, fasts and observances.

The Lord Is Our Rock

Pastor Stephen Bohr sheds light upon the symbol of fire falling from heaven and the "living water" imagery found in various passages in the Bible. He shows how we are to drink from the Fountain provided us by Christ and in turn to become fountains of life flowing up so others can drink the water of the message of the Holy Spirit. If you wish to understand deeper meanings behind the falling of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, the process of salvation demonstrated at the cross and in the Holy Place in heaven's temple, and principles for effective witnessing, this presentation is for you.

The Measure of Forgiveness

The rabbis in Jesus' day limited forgiveness to a maximum of three offenses. But Jesus taught that we are to forgive as often as God is willing to forgive us.

Pastor Bohr examines the Parable of the Unmerciful Servant in Matthew 18:21-35, as well as the story of Mary washing Jesus' feet out of appreciative love in contrast to the nonchalant and judgmental attitude of Simon the Leper. These stories demonstrate how many do not realize just how massive and unpayable a debt each one of us owes to God and how merciful and forgiving He has been to us in giving all of heaven freely for our salvation.

The Omniscient Sword

In this sermon, Pastor Stephen Bohr discusses how the Bible is the all-penetrating sword of the all-knowing Spirit that examines us in the deepest recesses of our lives. We can either choose to let that sword be used by God to reveal sin and to cut it out of our lives or we can choose to ignore salvation and be slain by that sword in the end. Pastor Bohr reveals a fascinating link connecting the salvation symbols of the robe worn by Christ as High Priest in His work for us in heaven; of His eyes being like flames of fire; and of the sword depicted as coming from His mouth, as found in Revelation 1, with the same symbols used of Him in Revelation 19, only this time in the role of a King executing judgment on His enemies when He comes again. The symbols in Revelation 1 are designed to wake us up and come to Jesus for redemption, while those same symbols are used at the end of the book of Revelation to judge and punish the sinner who does not accept that salvation.

The Peter Principle

Stephen Bohr. Peter the apostle had a devotional love and natural-born talent that Jesus knew was hidden below his outward roughness and impulsiveness. He had many flaws displayed throughout Scripture that needed the refinement of the Master's touch. He was self-confident, selfish, and he, along with the rest of the disciples, hoped for a Messiah that would deliver Israel from Roman rule and honor His disciples with riches and honor.

The Publication of Questions on Doctrine and Its Aftermath

Pastor Stephen Bohr explores several major biblical doctrines which Christian denominations have misunderstood over the years, concerning certain aspects about the nature of Christ, the gospel, grace, the law, sanctification, perfection and the work of atoning salvation. He then shows why many of our doctrinal and foundational views of the work of salvation could never mix with any other denomination's teachings. Satan has hit us at our foundation pillars and has thus tried to detour the church into ecumenism, so that we will mute our distinct message in order to be accepted as "one of them" and thus eventually lose sight of spreading the three angels' messages, which call people out of Babylon's corruptions of Bible doctrine. Every Seventh-day Adventist should hear this presentation, which reveals the disease causing the symptoms that we see today. It calls us back to our roots in fulfilling the work of the remnant church described in Bible prophecy and to uphold "the faith once delivered to the saints". It makes a must-have companion to Pastor Bohr's "Worship at Satan's Throne" presentation.

The Refuge of Jacob

Stephen Bohr. Do you ever fear the events predicted for the end times? No portions of Scripture have brought comfort, inspiration and strength to all kinds of people than do the Psalms.

Pastor Bohr examines Psalm 46, the triumphant Psalm we will sing when we are delivered from our final enemies, and from which Martin Luther derived his song "A Mighty Fortress". This sermon both prepares and encourages us to face the great "time of Jacob's trouble" ahead.

The Ship

Stephen Bohr. In this presentation, Pastor Bohr draws out very important lessons for today from three places in their writings where Ellen White and Uriah Smith used ship imagery to describe their points, each of which is related to the gift of prophecy given to the remnant church. The first is Ellen's graphic description of a ship meeting a huge iceberg, illustrative of the church needing to face squarely the pantheistic movement which threatened to sink it in the early 1900's. She wrote that any such movement would allow nothing to stand in its way and would attempt to bring in a new reformation that would eventually do away with the foundational doctrines of our faith. It would attempt to build up a new structure influenced by books and sermons based on a new order of "intellectual philosophy" (1 SM 204).

The Significance of the US Papal Visit

In this presentation, Pastor Stephen Bohr traces the history of US relations with the Vatican from the days when there were no diplomatic ties up until the visit of the Pope to the White House and the United Nations in April 2008. He shows astonishing prophecy-fulfilling news clips of an ecumenical prayer service led by Pope Benedict at St. Joseph's Parish in New York where many denominational religious leaders came forward to pay him honor.

Pastor Bohr also discusses how the church used the sword of the state in the Middle Ages to punish heretics and how that sword was taken away by the secular powers in 1798. He gives examples demon-

The Simplicity of Faith

Stephen Bohr. Our name "Seventh-day Adventist" reveals that we believe in a supernatural and miraculous beginning and ending to this world. We were raised up for such a time as this as doubts and misinterpretations about the Bible increase. Unfortunately, even certain scholars among us have been leading some away from the foundations of our faith in a literal seven days of creation and in the universality of Noah's flood, and have allowed themselves to be influenced by men's scientific theories of evolution.

The Thief and the Cross

Stephen Bohr. The thief on the cross, who was a companion in murder, theft, and political insurrection with Barabbas, beheld the meekly suffering Lamb of God beside him. He saw that Jesus offered no resistance to defend His kingdom. In his dying moments, he saw how his own life of misguided dreams for an earthly Messianic kingdom had led him into evil in order to procure it. He cast His whole soul on Jesus in faith, repented for his misdeeds, and asked Him to take him to heaven when He came in His kingdom. This very first soul to accept the message of the cross gave Jesus courage that His sacrifice was not in vain. Pastor Bohr also draws out an important lesson from the thief's getting in with the wrong crowd in his desire to attain political power. Those Christians today who attempt to control the government to bring about their desires for an earthly Christian utopia are in danger of following a false Messiah like Barabbas, who will teach that the end justifies the means in using force in making oppressive laws against those who choose their beliefs differently. This is one of Pastor Bohr's finest and most heart-appealing sermons. It calls us to come to the cross just as we are today and not to put it off any longer. It ends with a gripping story that may well cause you to shed tears as it shows how we should never give up on a soul but to keep praying and planting seeds in hearts. We never know if they will ripen into fruition when someone is brought into a straight place and needs to make a decision about Jesus. This is a wonderfully effective sermon about the goodness of God's mercy that can be shared with those who need a powerful and loving call to give their hearts to Jesus, no matter what they have done or how far they have strayed from Him.

The Timing of Messiah's Birth & Handout

Stephen Bohr. When was Jesus really born? Did God have a calendar of events that would show when He would enter into our world?

What is the surprising relation between the Feast of Tabernacles, Hanukkah, and the Feast of Lights?

Pastor Bohr, in his usual style of uncovering fascinating connections not seen by surface reading, demonstrates with three biblical approaches why Jesus could not have been born December 25th and how we can determine more closely when that event happened. Jesus will once again come to "tabernacle among us" in the New Earth, where God's calendar of events will reach its final fulfillment.

Third Commandment

Pastor Stephen Bohr presents a ground-breaking study of the third commandment: "You shall not take the name of the Lord Your God in vain" (Ex. 20:7). He explores the wide breadth of its meaning in various aspects. He spends most of the time studying how this commandment will play a very important part as a test of sincerity of those who claim the name of Christ in the end times, as he provides fresh new insights into the deceptive work of the lamb-like land beast of Revelation 13 and how it will someday turn against the principles it professedly represents by its two horns.

Anyone who becomes a Christian takes on the family name of Christ, and thus is called to represent what that name means before the world. God's name represents His character, which we are to reflect in our lives. We also are to honor and respect that name in our language habits. When we do not represent His name that we have taken upon ourselves, we thus take the name of God in vain, misusing it and giving Him a bad reputation.

Three Gifts for the King

Stephen Bohr. In this most unusual and fascinating Christmas sermon, Pastor Bohr digs up jewels from the story of the three Persian wise men who studied Scripture and traveled 1,000 miles to bring their best gifts to honor Jesus. Learn the fascinating story of how, in His providence, God set this all up long before in the days of Cyrus. See how there were two types of wise men and how we must be careful in judging those honest seekers for light who are not yet directly part of the church, for "in the sight of God the wise men stand far higher than His professed worshipers; yet they are looked upon by the Jews as heathen" (DA 61).

Discover insights into the spiritual meaning of the three gifts they brought to Bethlehem and how we also are to make Jesus the object of our adoration and bring our best gifts to Him.

What She Would Say Today

Stephen Bohr. Ellen White visited Fresno Central Seventh-day Adventist church for the first time in 1888. She spoke about how church members would make a strong church if they met their responsibilities for building up the church and always moving forward. What would she say today if she spoke to our churches? Do we really comprehend how close we are to the end of time, as signs in the world and church testify, or have we become too comfortable and indolent here and are not putting our all into finishing the work?

looks at each part of the parable of the wise and foolish builders and its connection with Christ's Sermon on the Mount.

- What is meant by the house built on rock and the one on sand?
- How and on what do we build the house?
- What are the winds and floods that cause each to stand or fall and how do they intensify at the end?
- Why does Babylon ultimately fall?

Many in the last days will say "Lord, Lord" and appear to be Christians and even do mighty works, but Jesus will ultimately reject their work because it was built on lawlessness. "Let us not love in word or in tongue but in deed and in truth" (1 John 3:1).

Catching Up To Jesus

Seventh-day Adventists have been criticized because their church originated in an environment of disappointment. But did you know that at each stage of Christ's ministry—his incarnation, his death, his installment as high priest and his work as judge-- there has been a similar disappointment? In this captivating series pastor Bohr shows how the 1844 movement was guided by God even in the midst of disappointment.

The explanation given by Seventh-Day Adventists as to the true significance of the Great Disappointment in the Millerite movement of 1844, and why God allowed it, has been described by some critics as the greatest face-saving gimmick in Christian history.

In this study, Pastor Bohr shows clearly how, at each major stage of Christ's earthly and heavenly sanctuary ministry, there has been a public proclamation of an important message concerning the work He is to do at that time, that is at first misunderstood, leading to a huge disappointment, but then is followed by an explanation to those left in the movement of the reason for their disappointment.

MISINTERPRETED TEXTS ON THE STATE OF THE DEAD

We live in a world that is obsessed with the supernatural. Spiritualism has inundated the media and the entertainment world. One regularly hears about the zombies, out-of-body and near-death experiences, UFO's, ghosts, necromancers and dead humans coming back as angels. What does the Bible say about the state of the dead? Does the soul leave the body at death? Are the righteous dead in heaven praising the Lord? Are the souls of the wicked suffering in hell? In this study, Pastor Stephen Bohr answers these and other questions about death and the afterlife.

"The prince of evil has power to bring before men the appearance of departed friends. The counterfeit is perfect, reproduced with marvelous distinctness. Many are comforted with the assurance that their loved ones are enjoying heaven. Without suspicion of danger, they give ear "to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils." 1 Timothy 4:1. Ellen G. PROPHECY MADE SIMPLE

This is an easy-to-understand and common sense study of the great prophecies of the Bible that is unique among such seminars dealing with Seventh-day Adventist beliefs about Bible prophecy and doctrine. Don't be fooled by the title and pass up this series if these subjects may seem to be already very familiar to you, because, while Pastor Bohr makes these topics clear, logical, and simple to understand for those who are not familiar with Adventist views on

Bible prophecy, yet it contains fresh spiritual depth, insights, and food for all who desire to understand these great prophecies better.

What especially makes this series unique and useful is how much Pastor Bohr spends time in examining Old Testament history and biblical thought patterns and structure that are the basis of correctly understanding prophecy. These background stories and foundational interpretative principles make for a more well-rounded, logical, and enlightening interpretation of Revelation and other prophetic sections of Scripture which are based upon a proper understanding of Bible history. This series dwells more upon these strong biblical foundations and overall views of the great struggle between Jesus and Satan, as revealed in Bible history and prophecy, rather than giving a detailed study of every doctrine, some of which are examined more than others. This makes the series a great beginning point for those just starting out in the study of these subjects, before they go on to longer and more extensive doctrinal studies. Yet it also reveals background and structural material which is rarely found elsewhere in prophecy seminars, and thus it will enlighten any student.

PROPHECY'S REPEATING SEQUENCE

In this study, Pastor Bohr will focus our attention on the chain prophecies of Daniel and Revelation in the light of current events in the political, social, economic, religious, and natural world. Special focus will be dedicated to an in-depth and careful study of the challenging prophecy of Revelation 17 and its relationship to Daniel 2 and 7 and Revelation 12, 13, and the seven last plagues in Revelation 16. This will be a different way of looking at the links between these passages. We will see more clearly where things are trending in the world today.

REVELATION'S SEVEN SEALS: STUDIES IN REVELATION 4-8 - 2ND EXPANDED EDITION

Revelation's seven seals (Revelation 6:1-8:1) have long been a topic of animated discussion among Adventists, Protestants and the world in general. The Sabbath School quarterly recently dedicated three lessons to this topic. Obviously, it is impossible to comprehend fully the meaning of the seals in just three short lessons so we will dedicate an entire week to their study.

What do the seven seals mean? Must we understand them literally or symbolically? What principles must we apply to them in order to understand their true meaning?

In this ANCHOR class study, we dedicate an entire week to decode the meaning of the seals verse by verse by applying historicist principles. Not only will we study the seven seals, per se, but also the magnificent introductory vision in chapters four and five as well as the prophetic interlude of Revelation 7. We will answer questions such as the following (and many more!):

- What principles must we apply to the study of the seven seals?
- Do chapters four and five depict the judgment scene that began in 1844 or do they apply to Christ's inauguration upon His ascension?
- Who are the four living creatures and the 24 Elders?
- What do the four horses represent and why are they different colors?
- Who are the souls that are crying out from under the altar?
- Must we understand the great earthquake and the signs in the sun, moon, and stars literally?
- Who are the 144,000 and when will they live? Is the number literal or symbolic?
- What is the half hour of silence in heaven when the seventh seal is broken?
- What relevance do the seven seals have for my own personal walk with Jesus?

REVELATION'S SEVEN TRUMPETS - A CONTEXTUAL APPROACH (2ND EXPANDED EDITION)

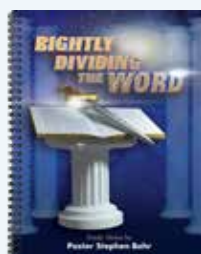

There are many differing interpretations of the seven trumpets both within and without the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The trumpet series is one of the most difficult to interpret in the book of Revelation. Bizarre symbols and strange actions permeate the series. How can we make sense out of what appears to be impossible to decode? In this series, Pastor Bohr suggests a contextual approach that centers on the great controversy between good and evil. Using the principle that Scripture is its own interpreter, Pastor Bohr offers an interpretation that makes sense and appeals to the unimpassioned reason.

RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD

At creation God established a six part blueprint for the happiness of humanity. Sadly, sinful man has changed each part of the blueprint to the detriment of the family, society and the world. God has called Seventh-day Adventists to restore each and every part of the blueprint.

STUDIES IN REVELATION - THE SEVEN CHURCHES

THESE STUDY NOTES GO ALONG WITH THE DVD SERIES "THE TRIALS & TRIUMPH OF THE CHURCH".

Study Revelation chapters 1-3 with meticulous detail. You will thrill as you discern deep spiritual lessons for today from the history of the Christian church as described in the symbols found in the letters of John to the seven churches.

You will see how the experiences, problems, and victories those local churches in Asia Minor went through describe conditions and events that would happen in seven great periods of church history, and also how individual churches and church members may find counsel that applies to today's generation from all of the seven churches.

As Pastor Bohr examines every church, we see that sometimes they overlap in time, but have distinct, separate, major events that set them apart.

The thrilling insights gained in this series unravel major events that happened during periods of church history, such as the rise of a compromising church, the flight of the persecuted "wilderness church", the unrest during the French Revolution and the beginning of the investigative judgment. We learn the history of the open and shut door as Jesus entered the Most Holy Place in 1844 and how "the synagogue of satan" refused to follow Christ there.

STUDIES IN REVELATION 12 & 13

In this thorough and fascinating study of Revelation 12, Pastor Bohr compares this chapter with the types it is based on that are found in the Old Testament, in order to decipher its symbols clearly and properly. This chapter is the revelation of the fulfillment of the promise made to Adam and Eve in Genesis 3:15 that the Seed of the woman, which symbolizes Jesus and His relation to His true and faithful people, would be sent to battle the devil throughout earth's history and win. Pastor Bohr also brings out beautiful parallels with Christ's life, as symbolized in Revelation 12, in the story of Moses being protected by God as a baby and then leading Israel out of Egypt, as well as his death and resurrection. Other symbols, found later in the chapter, of the woman fleeing to the wilderness for 1,260 days are shown to be based on the story of Elijah, who stood up for truth in an apostate nation and had to flee to the wilderness for three-and-a-half years where he was taken care of by God.

In this striking and informative study of Revelation 13, Pastor Bohr first explains the importance of understanding its structure, which reveals three cycles in it that need to be compared in order to shed light on what the chapter means in regards to the wound of the first beast and its healing by the second beast. He then shows the importance of comparing this chapter with the final events in the life of Christ, in order to see an example of what will be repeated on a worldwide scale in His followers in the end times as they face the wrath of the beast. He also compares it with Daniel 2 and the importance of understanding what the clay represents in the image there.

QUESTIONS THIS STUDY DEALS WITH INCLUDE:

1. Why does the first beast in this chapter have its symbolic animals listed in reverse order of their listing in Daniel 7 and why, unlike the beasts in Daniel 7, is it composed of all four beasts blended into one conglomerate beast?
2. Why are there 7 heads on this beast, how do they differ from the 10 horns, and do they rise consecutively or appear all at once in history?
3. Are the same nations that composed the 10 horns at the beginning of the reign of this beast, the same ones that stay on it throughout history, or do they vary over time?
4. What is meant by the wounding of this beast by a sword and what needs to happen in order for that wound to finally be fully healed?
5. Did the signing of a treaty with Mussolini in 1929 heal the wound made in 1798 to the Papacy, as many claim it did, and which country is identified in prophecy as the one that will be the catalyst which will fully heal that wound?

THE 24 ELDERS

There has been much discussion in the Seventh-day Adventist church about the identity of the 24 elders. Some believe that they represent those who resurrected with Jesus. Others believe that they are the highest of angels. Who is this select group and what is their function in the heavenly courts? What lessons do they teach us regarding God's mode of operating the universe? What future role will they play according to the book of Revelation? These and other questions are clearly answered in this ground-breaking series.

THE BIBLE OR TRADITION

In this study Pastor Stephen Bohr compares the Jewish view of tradition of Christ's day with the Roman Catholic view of tradition today. This reveals that the Jewish leaders rejected Jesus as their Messiah because of their erroneous view of tradition. The Roman Catholic concept of tradition today mirrors the view that was being taught in Christ's day. Will the Christian churches of the world repeat the same mistakes of the past and be totally unprepared for the Messiah's second coming? A must see series for those who believe in Sola Scriptura.

THE END-TIME DIMENSION OF THE PARABLES

This interactive Anchor School of Theology class covers the parables, symbols, and allegories of Christ as they relate to end-time events. It is based on scripture and the books The Desire of Ages, Christ Object Lessons, and Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing. Many fresh insights are provided focusing on the coming crisis, and will provide you with a perspective rarely considered. Each parable will strengthen your resolve to prepare for the final events soon to come.

THE GREAT COSMIC CONTROVERSY

Seventh-day Adventists often refer to the “doctrine” of the sanctuary. But the sanctuary is much more than a mere doctrine of the church. It is actually the World View that unites all the Bible doctrines into a beautiful mosaic of truth. In this study, Pastor Bohr links the sanctuary with the overarching concept of the great conflict between good and evil and explains how Jesus, step by step, resolves the universal problem of evil. If you want to know how evil began, why it continues and how it will end this is the series for you.

Study in detail some of the minor prophets that are closely linked with the book of Revelation. Among those are Habakkuk, Nahum, Joel and Jonah. We will also study portions of the major prophets that are developed in the book of Revelation such as Jeremiah 4, Isaiah 24-27, 36-38 and Ezekiel 38, 39, among others. But this is not all, we will also compare God's perspective of prophecy and ours as well as prophecies that are rarely considered, such as the typological meaning of the cities of refuge, the glory on the face of Moses as he descended from the mount, and the typological parallels between the building of the Jerusalem wall by Nehemiah and our parallel work today.

THE HEBREW RELIGIOUS CALENDAR

Before Jesus came to this earth, He sat down with His Father and planned the seven successive steps that He would take in the plan of salvation. However, not only did they plan the steps but they also prepared a detailed calendar when those steps would take place. The Hebrew Sanctuary reveals the events of salvation history and the feast reveal the calendar of those events. This study focuses on the seven feasts and their relationship to the sanctuary. Included is a study of the season of the Messiah's birth, the three days and three nights and whether Christians are still required to observe the feasts. Your faith in the God who knows the end from the beginning will be strengthened.

THE PROPHETIC PANORAMA - RIGHT AND WRONG WAYS OF INTERPRETING PROPHECY

It seems that today there are as many interpretations of Bible prophecy as there are interpreters. Can we know for certain what the future holds? Is there an ironclad method for interpreting Bible prophecy? Are Sunday morning televangelists trustworthy in what they teach about Israel, the seventy weeks, the rapture of the church, the tribulation and the Antichrist or are they setting us up for Satan's final deception? Don't miss the

THE SECRETS OF PENTECOST

What comes to your mind when you hear the word 'Pentecost'? Most people think of a mighty rushing wind, tongues of fire and strange languages. But there is much more to Pentecost than this. In this study Pastor Bohr explains the profound meaning of the Pentecostal events in heaven and on earth and their significance for today.

THE THREE ELIJAHS

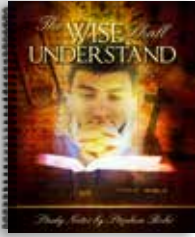

Have you ever wondered what the Bible means when it says in Malachi that Elijah will reappear in the end times? This vitally important topic is misunderstood in many Christian circles today, as movies such as "The Omega Code" portray a literal Moses and Elijah who will supposedly come down from heaven after the rapture to preach and to be killed for a time by the evil beast figure that takes over the Jerusalem temple. Why is this topic so distorted by today's theologians? Pastor Bohr, in his step-by-step, convincing and thorough manner, deals with the mission and messages of the historical Elijah the Tishbite and the New Testament "Elijah", John the Baptist. He shows how their experiences will be spiritually replayed on an expanding worldwide scale in the prophetic two-staged Elijah message, starting with the Middle Ages experience of the church in the wilderness and culminating with the Apocalyptic "Elijah", represented by the end-time remnant church.

To the Law and to the Testimony

In this study Pastor Bohr deals with hot button issues in contemporary Adventism including, lessons to be learned from the pantheistic crisis in the early 20th century, the holy flesh fanaticism, and the role of the spirit of prophecy in the remnant church. Also he deals with the identity and function of the 24 Elders in the governance of heavenly society.

What Jesus Said to New Testament Christians

It has been claimed that Seventh-day Adventists are Old Testament Christians because they tithe, keep the Sabbath, and abide by certain health principles. What about their other distinctive doctrines such as the Spirit of Prophecy, the state of the dead, the sanctuary and the investigative judgment. Can they be found in the four gospels and the book of Acts? Yes they can!

Building upon the foundation of the four gospels and the book of Acts, Pastor Stephen Bohr will answer these questions and establish in this study that Jesus taught every belief and practice of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This will equip you to give a reason for the faith that is in you when you meet other Christians who claim to be "New Testament Christians".

Your Redemption Draweth Nigh

In this study, Pastor Bohr explains how each chapter of Daniel 8-12 centers on the 2300 days and the pre-Advent Investigative Judgment. It is impossible to understand Daniel independently of chapters 9-12 because they all have the same central theme. Furthermore, it is impossible to understand fully these chapters without a careful study of Revelation 10.
